PERSONAL STATEMENT

Life's responsibilities do not take a break when disaster strikes. I advocate for and represent individuals that have been affected by disaster, acting as the intermediary between policyholders and their insurance company while negotiating and submitting their insurance claims. My primary goal is to take as much of the burden of recovery off of my clients as possible so they can focus on themselves and the people important to them, rather than wrangle endlessly with their insurance company. That's my job.

I take great care to connect with my clients personally, from the CEO to the stay-at-home mom, so that I can understand what their unique needs are. By understanding and empathizing, I am able to achieve their individual goals and help get their lives back on track.

WHAT MY CLIENTS HAVE TO SAY

"Kyle Hensiek met me at my home to discuss the claim and for the first time since the event, I felt comfortable and confident that someone was actually going to be on my side during this event and that I could get the money that was owed to me to rebuild my home the right way with no corners cut. Without The Greenspan Co./Adjusters International's assistance, I honestly would not have had my home returned to even close its pre-fire condition, or I would've had to come out of my own pocket in order to do so. I wholeheartedly recommend The Greenspan Co./Adjusters International for this purpose. They are a classy, professional organization that goes to bat for you, and they are outstanding at doing what they do."

"When I first met Kyle Hensiek of The Greenspan Co./Adjusters International, he told me your company would be my advocate and would deliver a fair and equitable settlement. Kyle made me feel like I was in great hands and I felt relieved someone would help me through this."

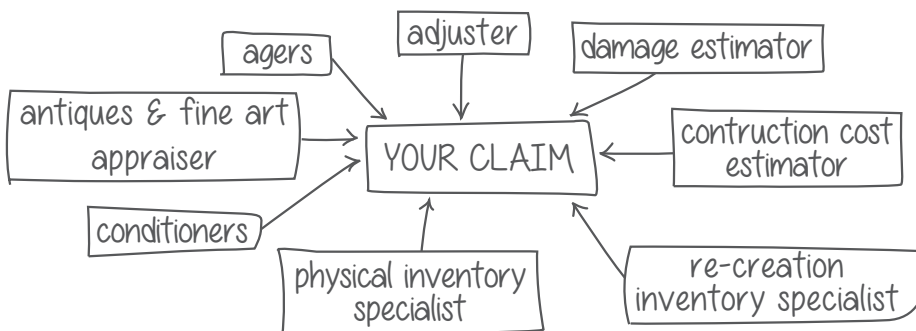

Ashleigh Reynolds
Homeowner

"Thanks to the professionalism of both Kyle Hensiek and Rino Benenati in providing me with information and decision to retain the services of The Greenspan Co./Adjusters International. As a Police Sergeant, I was already a busy man and knew I would need the help of professionals. By retaining The Greenspan Co./Adjusters International's services, they were able to maximize my recovery. I couldn't be happier!"
